DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-3, 6-9, 12-15, and 18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In each of the independent claims, in paragraph (a), "the stores" lacks antecedent basis.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

Claims 1-3, 6-9, 12-15, and 18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Shavit et al. '156 in view of Perkowski (US 5,950,173).

Shavit et al. discloses or inherently teaches all of the limitations of the claims (See for example Col. 12, lines 42-53); but the reference lacks the specific teaching of: the advertising being from a "non-supply chain participant", and a charge required for the advertising.

Perkowski '173 teaches a similar system whereby advertising for manufacturers (i.e., for supply chain participants) is done by "their advertisers" (i.e., not a supply chain member; See Perkowski Col. 5, lines 37-38).

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to modify Shavit et al. to have the advertising be from a non-supply chain participant, as is well known in the art of advertising, in order to allow professional "advertisers" to promote a manufacturers products.

It would have been an obvious design choice to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to modify Shavit et al. to charge for the advertising, in order to provide a source of revenue for the advertiser in order to maintain the service and to stay in business, as is well known in the art.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to all claims have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
